

IN TODAY'S ECONOMY, YOUR CHILD'S JEWISH FUTURE IS THE LAST THING YOU SHOULD SACRIFICE.

Jewish day school scholarships now available for all ages!

A limited number of tuition grants will be awarded to Jewish day school students in nursery, elementary, middle and high school for September 2012/Elul 5772.

These grants ensure that more children realize the dream of an education rich in Jewish values and responsibility, where they achieve academically, while connecting to the world through a Jewish lens. Engaged, passionate and committed, they are tomorrow's leaders.

Each student will receive a grant of up to 33% of tuition at day schools throughout Greater Philadelphia and South Jersey, up to $5,000 for lower and middle school and up to $8,500 for high school.

These scholarships are multi-year. Grants are offered to new and existing day school students of all denominations. Qualifications and details vary based on grade level.

Don't wait another minute to give your child a Jewish Day School education at an affordable price.

A limited number of grants available at all day schools in Greater Philadelphia/South Jersey

Abrams Hebrew Academy
Perelman Jewish Day School
Politz Cherry Hill
Torah Academy
Torah Academy Girls High School
Barrack Hebrew Academy
Kellman-Brown Academy
Politz Hebrew Day School
Kohelet Yeshiva High School

To see if you qualify, please contact
JewishDaySchoolGrants.org
484-278-1328

The Jewish Day School Collaborative
of Greater Philadelphia
a project of the Kohelet Foundation